Supervision SMSF is the business name under which the related entities Supervision Superannuation Australia Pty Ltd (ABN 54 105 828 117) Australian Financial Services Representative No: 001244976 and Supervision SMSF Solutions Pty Ltd (AFSL 435751) operate under.

Supervision Superannuation (Australia) Pty Ltd also trades under the business names Supervision Accounting Services and Ken Lafferty Accountants.

Essential to the success of Supervision SMSF is our commitment to our clients. We respect without reservation our obligation to protect and uphold the privacy of the personal information of individuals with whom we deal.

The purpose of the Privacy Statement is to explain how Supervision SMSF collects, maintains, uses and discloses your personal information. It also states how this information is used, updated and made available to those parties eligible to access it.

WHAT IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You provide Supervision SMSF with your personal information when you ask for information about our services, when you access and use the Supervision SMSF website, and/or when you submit an application with Supervision SMSF.

If you give us personal information about another person, you represent that you are authorised to do so and agree to inform that person who we are, that we will use and disclose that information for the relevant purposes set out below, and that they can access the information we hold about them.

We are required by law to collect information to identify and verify you. Supervision SMSF may make enquiries as to your identity and other personal details as required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006.

Your personal information will be treated strictly in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles (“APP”) in the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act of 2012.

DEALING WITH SUPERVISION SMSF ONLINE

When you visit Supervision SMSF websites you will browse anonymously unless you have logged into a client portal or accessed the website from a personalised communication from Supervision SMSF.

For all visitors to our web site, we use cookies to collect anonymous information such as the server your computer is logged on to, your browser type (for example, Internet Explorer, Chrome or Firefox), and your IP address. An IP address is a number that is assigned to your computer automatically and required for using the Internet. We may also derive the general geographic area associated with an IP address.

If you are an anonymous visitor, the information we collect is not capable of personally identifying you.

Once you have logged into a Supervision SMSF portal, accessed our website from an e-mail or other personalised communication sent to you or provided us with personal information by completing a form online, we may be able to identify you. If we have identified you we may be able to link your identity to your previous anonymous browsing history and collect information about your future use of our websites, irrespective of how you access our sites (eg by clicking a link in an advertisement or from a third party website). In addition we may combine that information about your use of Supervision SMSF websites with certain other online and offline information we have about you in order to tailor your online experience and provide you with further information. If you would prefer not to be identified you can delete the cookies and reconfigure the cookie preferences on your internet browser (see below).

We collect statistical information about visitors to our websites such as the number of visitors, pages viewed, types of transactions conducted, time online and documents downloaded. This information is used to evaluate and improve the performance of our websites. Other than statistical information, we do not collect any information about you through our website unless you provide the information to us.

You should also be aware that we use cookies on our websites. A cookie is a small amount of data, which often includes a unique identification number or value that is sent to your browser from a website's computer and stored on your computer's hard drive. Each website can send its own cookies to your browser if your browser allows it. However, to protect your privacy, your browser only allows a website to access the cookies it has sent to your computer.

When cookies are used on our websites, they are used to collect the statistical information referred to above in addition to allowing you to access your account online. When you access your account online, a cookie will be created which uniquely identifies your computer and your username and password. This means that you do not have to re-enter those details each time you want to access your account online.

Most internet browsers are set up to accept cookies. If you do not wish to receive cookies, you may be able to change the settings of your browser to refuse all cookies or to have your computer notify you each time a cookie is sent to it, and thereby give yourself the choice whether to accept it or not. If you reject all cookies, you will be unable to access your account online. You can also delete cookies from your computer after they have been created.

HOW DOES SUPERVISION SMSF USE YOUR INFORMATION

The information requested in any application completed by clients is required to enable us to provide our services. That information, together with the information collected and maintained by Supervision SMSF during the course of our relationship with you, is used to manage and administer the services provided to you.

Additionally we ask that you promptly notify us of any changes to the personal information that Supervision SMSF holds about you.

You may ask us at any time to correct personal information held by us about you, which you believe is inaccurate. If we disagree with you as to the accuracy of the information, you may request that we attach a statement to that information noting that you consider it inaccurate or incomplete.

We will respond to your request to correct your information within 30 calendar days from date of receipt of the request.

ELECTRONIC MESSAGE COMMUNICATION

By accessing this website you consent to us sending commercial electronic messages (including messages about our products and services) to any electronic address which you provide or for which you are responsible. You warrant that you have authority, either as or on behalf of the electronic account holder, to provide this consent and agree that until you withdraw your consent by providing written notice to us or using an unsubscribe facility in the message, we may continue to send commercial electronic messages to those addresses.

YOUR CONSENT

By accessing this website or by submitting an application with Supervision SMSF, you consent to Supervision SMSF collecting, maintaining, using and disclosing personal information about you and provided by you or by another person as described above.

IF YOU ARE NOT HAPPY

Supervision SMSF has procedures in place, to receive and respond to, complaints or inquiries about our policies and practices relating to the handling of personal information. Supervision SMSF takes all requests for information requested and required by us to provide under the new APP’s and complaints seriously and will investigate all complaints.

Please email directly to our Compliance Officer at complaints@supervision.com.au or put your complaint in writing and send it to us at Level 2, 76 Mill Point Road, South Perth WA 6151

If you make a complaint we will:
- acknowledge its receipt
- assign it to an appropriate person for investigation and resolution
- respond to you as quickly as we can
When the complaint is received, the Complaints Manager will contact you in relation to resolving your complaint or to advise you of the steps that will be taken to address it. The issues involved may be quite complex and subject to special regulations. We will try to resolve your complaint quickly and fairly. If your complaint cannot be resolved immediately we will keep you informed of the progress we make to resolve it.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 45 days after we have received it, we will advise you in writing. In certain instances, where corresponding is difficult or the matter is particularly complex or involves third-parties, we are permitted up to 90 days to address your complaint. We will advise you if this longer period is required.

If you still do not get a satisfactory outcome you have the right to take your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS) who can be contacted at:
